2. The Director, Women Development & Child Welfare Department, Hyderabad is requested to ensure that the budget sanctioned under Kishore Shakti Yojana is utilized for the areas identified as vulnerable to trafficking in each of the districts. The adolescent girls, orphans, widows, deserted wives, girls belonging to the poorest of the poor families from such areas who would be vulnerable to trafficking may be identified and training provided and wherever possible, M&S Enterprises established so as to engage them in gainful employment. This would be an effective preventive anti-trafficking strategy of the Department. The Project Directors, District Women and Child Development Agency, in close co-ordination with Superintendents of Police; Project Directors, DRDA; officers of the Khadi Village Industries and other welfare corporations and under guidance of the District Collector should take further action accordingly to ensure effective implementation of this important preventive anti trafficking strategy. Further, the Director, Women Development & Child Welfare Department, Hyderabad is requested to review periodically the progress on the implementation of the Kishore Shakti Yojana programme accordingly and to furnish the Implementation Reports from time to time.

3. This order issues with the concurrence of Finance (Expr.WD, CW & DW) Department, vide their U.O.No.30299/205/Expr.WD/10, dt.24-11-10.
